

Neila A. Toofuny

233A William Street, Kingston, Ontario, K7L 2E5, Canada

☎ (613)331-1436 | ✉ 13nat2@queensu.ca | 🏠 medium.com/@neilaamy | 📁 github.com/ntoofuny

References available upon request.

Education

Queen's University

BASC IN COMPUTER ENGINEERING CANDIDATE

Kingston, Ontario

September 2016-present

- Technical Skills: SolidEdge, Java, Nios II Assembly Language, Python, MATLAB, C++
- Nontechnical Skills: Eloquent writing, public speaking, networking, and event planning
- I have completed courses covering computer architecture, electric circuits, data structures, algorithms, operating systems and digital systems.

The University of Western Ontario

B.SC. HONOURS SPECIALIZATION IN THE BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES (INCOMPLETE)

London, Ontario

September 2014 - April 2016

- Other relevant courses: Computer Science Fundamentals I
- 3.7 GPA

Employment

New Merry Market

RETAIL CLERK

Kingston, Ontario

May. 2019 - July 2019

- Managing sales of retail merchandise, lottery ticket sales, and age-restricted products (eg.tobacco) between both customers and wholesale suppliers
- Entrusted with store security, finances and some level of accounting at the beginning and end of each shift
- Maintenance of store cleanliness and upkeep

One United Resource Ecovillage

STUDENT INTERN

Shawnigan Lake, British Columbia

May. 2018 - August 2018

- Independently filmed and directed a short documentary edited by Xavier Harel which reached 7000+ views on social media and was picked up by Local Futures' Short Film Series (UK-based NGO)
- Orienteered and remapped the site's terrain and perennial plants for administrative records
- Learned permaculture principles and self-care techniques which will be forever put into practice

Heritage Reforestation Inc.

TREEPLANTER

Northern Ontario

Summer 2015, 2016

- Quickly learned proper reforestation techniques and sapling identification, quality assessment, etc
- Maintained high level of physical/mental endurance to work over 10+ hours a day of manual labor in all weather conditions
- Was consistently one of the highest performing crew members in my first summer, planting max 3100 trees/day

Tornabene Lab, Earth and Planetary Sciences, Western University

RESEARCH ASSISTANT (UNPAID)

London, Ontario

Oct. 2015 - Jan. 2016

- Offered as part of the Work Study Program
- Screened hundreds of photos collected by the THEMIS imaging system to identify high-quality impact craters exposing martian bedrock for compositional analysis
- General administrative tasks; international travel expense reports, reimbursements, etc

Extracurriculars

QHacks

MARKETING COORDINATOR

Kingston, Ontario

September. 2016 - January 2018

- Queen's University's annual student-run hackathon sponsored by Major League Hacks
- Expanding QHack's presence in the hackathon scene both on/off social media
- Coordinated and directed a videography team in creating the promotional video
- Managed social media accounts (eg. Twitter) and website
- Started and maintained the QHacks Medium Publication as the main editor and blogger

Western Rock Climbing

VICE PRESIDENT OF EVENTS

London, Ontario

September. 2015 - April 2016

- Two years experience, top-rope belay certification, lead certification
- Submitted event proposals to ensure smooth operation of club events and meetings
- Coordinated inter-university bouldering competition events for Western (registration, waivers, transport, etc)
- Proposed various marketing and network activities to raise club awareness